

Sing for Joy!

Mt Eden

This community choir led by Max Maxwell is open to all comers and our focus is the joy of singing together. We will learn songs in a wide variety of styles in multi part harmony. You choose your level of participation in the group - from singing in the safety of numbers in your section to soloing or small group work. Part of our charter will be community building through creating social events, performing for community organizations, fundraising concerts etc

Whether you have sung all your life, don't sing or think you can't, this choir is for you! Come along and experience the joy of singing in a group.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Max has many years of experience working with choirs and leading singing workshops throughout NZ and started the SingForJoy Choir in 2008. His passion lies in bringing people together to create harmony and rhythm - exhilarating, moving - and just sheer fun!

"The style was casual and inclusive. Singing ability wasn't judged. Max's wonderful open and friendly nature made us all feel relaxed and included"
Kate McKessar.

"I enjoyed your light touch, Max. You are a master teacher. I enjoyed the way my voice developed strength - loved singing with others"
Mary Matthews
